Christ the everlasting Lord

The eternal priest
Psalm 110:4

Introduction: the Cotswold Lion

1. His finished sacrifice

2. His forever priesthood

a. a permanent oath

b. a pre-eminent order

> [18] And Melchizedek king of Salem brought out > bread and wine. (He was priest of God Most High.) > [19] And he blessed [Abraham] and said,
> "Blessed be Abram by God Most High,
> Possessor of heaven and earth;
> [20] and blessed be God Most High,
> who has delivered your enemies into your hand!"
> And Abram gave him a tenth of everything.
> Genesis 14:18–20 ESVUK

Questions for discussion and reflection:

- Why is Jesus (and Jesus alone) qualified to be our priest forever?
- When might you most need to remember Psalm 110:4 this week?

Suggestion: Try and memorise Psalm 110 by reading it every day over the next two weeks.
