

God's promise to a broken world

God's beautiful bride

Isaiah 61:10–62:12

1. The bride the Lord cherishes (Isaiah 61:10–62:5)

2. The bride the Lord commissions (Isaiah 62:6–12)

Questions for discussion and reflection:

- What is your default assumption about how God views us (as his church and as individuals)? How does this passage impact that?
- How is God's love for us (as his church and as individuals) different and better than human love?
- What is your default feeling about the role the Lord has given us as his church? How do v6–12 impact that view? How do these verses make us feel about being his co-builders and co-proclaimers?
